Dear Ms. Brock:

On behalf of the United States Postal Service, I am pleased to inform you that Shelter Insurance has been selected to receive the prestigious 2015 Mail Technology Award. The Postmaster General and Executive Leadership team will be recognizing significant industry achievements at a special awards ceremony being held at the National Postal Forum in Anaheim, California on Monday, May 18, at 4:30 p.m., where this award will be presented to your company.

This award is a tribute to Shelter Insurance recognizing the vital importance of innovation, teamwork, communications, and customer satisfaction through your implementation of new technologies and best practices to maximize efficiencies in the mail value chain. It is dedicated to companies like yours who have worked collaboratively with postal management to enhance the value of mail for a successful business partnership.

As an award winner, you will receive one complimentary registration for the National Postal Forum, which begins on Sunday, May 17 at the Anaheim Convention Center. We hope you will be able to join us as we celebrate these achievements.

Please confirm your attendance with Margaret Pepe, National Postal Forum Awards coordinator. She will provide you with the all the necessary information to register and make this event memorable for you and your company. You may reach Margaret directly at 518-452-2355, or at margaret.m.pepe@usps.gov.

We look forward to meeting you in Anaheim and presenting Shelter Insurance with this significant postal award.

Sincerely,

Jacqueline Krage Strako
